AN OPEN INVITATION

"ORISSA JOINS COMPUTER-AGE"!!

The Government of India has decided to make Bhubaneswar the "Computer Software City" and has decided to place a super computer there.

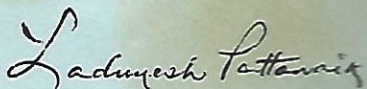

Apart from this, Orissa is taking giant strides toward developing a techno-industrial base. The major aluminium complex, NALCO, is into its final phases of completion, not to mention the several other projects taking root in the Chandka complexes.

All this activity has created various investment opportunities. For instance, there is already an acute shortage of office space and to address this opportunity, we at Pattanaik & Shaw Associates, Ltd., have prepared a project to put up an office complex, convention center cum hotel with Holiday Inn providing the name and know-how. We are also developing plans for a cooperative housing project as well as a housing cum shopping mall complex in the Bhubaneswar and Cuttack area. In addition, we are positioning ourselves to launch projects in technical fields, such as, manufacture of electronics with medical electronic products being a prime target.

For those wishing to join in this type of venture, either from the profit motivation or from the pride of ownership of industry back home, we offer an OPEN INVITATION to join hands with us. Our most recent achievement that adds persuasion to the picture is the licensing of Gemini Enterprises, Ltd., a $5.1M project in partnership with the Rajasthan Government, which will manufacture artificial leather products in Rajasthan in a 100% buy back deal. We will be helping place over $1M in NRI equity funds in this project alone.

So, we invite you to feel proud of your heritage. and call us or any of our associates.

Sincerely,

Ladukesh Pattanaik

Dear member:

July 5'85.

On behalf of the members of the Ohio Chapter of Orissa Society of America I am proud to welcome you all to the Sixteenth Annual Convention. We were quite apprehensive in the beginning to organize the National Convention here in Northeast Ohio, following in the footsteps of two successful conventions in Washington and New York areas. With the encouragement of our national representatives our few brave and courageous Ohio Chapter Members went to work. Here I am now welcoming you all the members and your families to the Sixteenth Annual Convention in Kent, Ohio. All my thanks to our few but active members and their wives, without whose help and dedication the idea of holding a convention could not have been materialized. For the first time we have moved away from dormitories to hotel and motel accomodation. We sincerely hope that the accomodations will be quite satisfactory and enjoyable to all our participating members and their families. We believe that this type of arrangement will encourage other chapters of the Association with few members to hold annual conventions in different parts of the country.

We are gathering here for the 16th time in the history of our society. We have managed through these years of growing pains, finanical pressures, personality conflicts and power struggles as well. It has in the process achieved a veritable experience and success for survial. It is now on a firm foundation and with adequate stamina and vigor to sustain the momentum. So as we gather here for fellowship and rejoicing, let us all take a pledge to strengthen our organization, so that we shall continue in all the years ahead to be an even greater force for good in this world in which we live.

Wishing you once again a most enjoyable stay here in Kent, Ohio

Yours sincerely,

GENERAL SURGERY

WELCOME TO OHIO !

The Ohio Chapter extends a hearty welcome to the members of OSA and their families and guests. The members of the Ohio Chapter have been extremely enthusiastic and have devoted themselves for the success of this convention. They have given limitless time and effort to make this program as successful as possible.

The idea of holding a national convention in Ohio was never materialized due to the declining limited members in Ohio. The feasibility of holding the convention by arranging hotel accommodations and catering prompted us to undertake this venture. Despite the declining ^{numbers} members of Oriyas in Ohio, the present members have given lots of time and effort to host this convention. I would like to thank all the members of OSA and volunteers who are making this program a successful one.

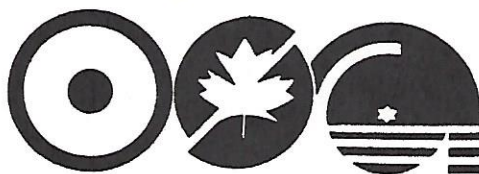

We have taken a new approach to organise this convention. Our feeling was to give the participants as much time as possible, so that they will have ample time to enjoy together. With this idea in mind, we decided to arrange for catering and hotel accommodations for a comfortable stay. It was also not practical for the limited numbers of Ohians to provide food without catering. Even though the package might be ^a little bit expensive, the time we will save can be spent properly to make this convention an enjoyable one. This might give an incentive to smaller chapters to hold the national convention.

Keeping in mind that the primary goal is to have a happy get together, we have arranged programs to keep everybody involved. Besides arranging to make the cultural event an entertaining one, we are also giving emphasis on youth forum, sports, etc, which will be a lot of fun to participate. I would like to thank the participants in these events who will make this convention an enjoyable one.

We are trying our best to make this convention a delightful experience, keeping in mind that all of you have taken a lot of pain by travelling from long distances. Your presence in Ohio is greatly appreciated. On behalf of the organising committee, I wish you an enjoyable and comfortable stay in Ohio.

Sincerely yours,

Prasanta Kumar Raj

Dear Friends:

I want to express to you my greetings on the occasion of the 16th annual convention of the Orissa Society of Americas.

I am very much aware of the great contributions being made to our country by the growing number of immigrants from India. The United States can only benefit from the enterprising spirit, the respect for learning and the rich cultural tradition which come to us from our sister democracy in Asia.

You have my best wishes for every success at this meeting and in your subsequent activities.

Dear Members:

I send greetings on the occasion of the 16th Annual Convention of the Orissa Society of Americas, Inc. We are pleased to host your group in Kent, Ohio.

I understand that your organization is predominately comprised of persons who have immigrated to the United States from India. I applaud your commitment to helping members adjust to American life socially and educationally while retaining pride in your own cultural heritage.

My family and I have strong ties to India and can appreciate your reasons for wanting to pass on your heritage to your children. I was fortunate in being able to serve as Executive Assistant to U.S. Ambassador Chester Bowles during the 1960's. Two of our children were born in New Delhi during our service there, so we too have encouraged their understanding of the rich culture intrinsic to India.

I wish you and your families every success in your personal, educational and career pursuits in the United States. I hope that you will have a most enjoyable and productive meeting in our State of Ohio.

What I Know about Orissa

by Sanjit Mahanti

Orissa* is a state in India. It is divided into thirteen districts. The names of these districts are Cuttack, Puri, Ganjam, Koraput, Sundargarh, Keonjhar, Bolangir, Mayurbhanj, Sambalpur, Kalahandi, Dhenkanal, Boudh and Phulbani. Bhubaneswar is the capital of Orissa. Bihar borders Orissa in the north, West Bengal in the north east, the Bay of Bengal in the east, Andhra Pradesh in the south and Madhya Pradesh in the west. The main rivers are the Mahanadi, Kathjodi, Kuakhai, Brahmani, and Salandi. The largest lake is the lake Chilka. People from Orissa speak Oriya (the language). The classical dance from Orissa is Odissi and there are many folk dances from other parts of the state.

The main festival of Orissa is the Rathajatra (car festival) in Puri. The festival is about how Lord Jagannath, His brother Balabhadra and sister Subhadra on three chariots get to their mousi's (aunt's) house. The chariots are pulled by millions of devotees who think they will make it to heaven. There is a 50/50 chance they will make it. The main temples in Orissa are the Lingaraj temple in Bhubaneswar, the Sun temple in Konarak, Sakhi Gopal temple in Puri and Jagannath temple in Puri. There are many beautiful temples in Orissa.

I visited a village, it was a nice experience. Even though the people were poor, they were very nice and very happy. The village I visited was Sirpur in Cuttack. I saw many tropical trees like mango, jackfruit and bamboo trees. Most of the houses were thatched. The way they go around in the village is walking, bike and bullock cart.

The largest city in Orissa is Cuttack, the business center of Orissa. There are no traffic lights in Cuttack, the streets are so crowded. It takes more than a half an hour to get from the bus stop to Boxi bazar. The means of transportation are uncountable.

The means of transportation in Orissa are bus and train. Train stations are usually crowded and dirty but it's a fun place to be at.

I went to a marriage in Orissa. It was a nice experience to see how people get married according to Oriya customs.

There are many great people from Orissa like Gopabandhu Das, a public worker, Gangadhar Meher the poet and Subhas Chandra Bose (who went to the same school as my dad, Ravenshaw Collegiate School), the revolutionist.

I loved going places with my relatives especially in the scooter to the bazar. I had fun time with my friends who played games with me. Even if they were poor they were happier than a lot of rich people. They also got satisfied with a small gift. One of my friends was a son of a dhobi (laundry man) but the father put all of his earnings and dresses into his future. I still miss them and remember them.

My uncle had a driver named Divya. He was not very rich, but he cared about us a lot. Also there was a person in our house (in Orissa) who worked so hard but he always had a smile on his face except when we left Orissa.

There are many other people who I came across who I will remember for the rest of my life. I will always enjoy Orissa. The people are wonderful and there are many nice places to see and visit.

* Also known as Kalinga and Utkal.

MY FEELING ABOUT ORISSA

Ritesh Raichoudhury

OSANY means a lot to me. I get to meet my old friends and some new ones. I also see the many cultural talents the people of OSANY have. These talents range from dancing to piano playing. OSANY organizes many youth activities for us. These activities let us enjoy the gatherings and have fun. Our parents talk to their friends and they don't have to worry about us because they know we're doing something that we like.

Sometimes I don't get to see some of my friends. But OSANY, sure enough, always has a way of getting its people together through picnics and entertainment.

I think OSANY helps all Indians to get their minds off what they used to do and it starts to make them do things new, like meetings, new friends and enjoying themselves. OSANY is successful now and I hope it will be in the future.

What " OSA means to Me " *

Meena Mohanty

The Orissa Society of America means a lot to me because it helps me find who and what I am culturally as well as spiritually. I get a lot out of all the things associated with OSA. For example, the directory the newsletter, and the yearly meetings.

The directory helps me in many ways. When I want to write or call one of my Oriya friends, all I have to do is to look up their address or phone number.

In the newsletters I read about some of the achievements Oriya kids are accomplishing. I also read poems and stories written by my friends which shows me how they feel.

At the yearly meetings I see old friends and meet new ones. I also enjoy and learn a lot from the cultural programs.

The OSA may just be a small part of my life, but it will have a big impact on me and my life.

* Awarded 1st prize above 13 years group.

WHAT I KNOW OF ORISSA *

Anita Bhuyan

Orissa is an eastern state in India. It's population is about 21,944,615. The state capital is Bhubaneswar.

Orissa is known as the land of Lord Jagannath. There is a temple of Lord Jagannath in Puri.

The main festivals in Orissa are Durga Puja, Rathajatra(car festival) and Kartika Purnima. These are the three main festivals in Orissa.

There are many places to visit there, such as Nandan Kanan, Puri and the Konark Temple. Nandan Kanan is a big safari. There are many great animals to see. In Puri you can see a beautiful beach and the Jagannath Temple. The Konark Temple is known for its artistic sculptures.

When I visited Orissa, I was five, then I went again when I was twelve. I saw many, many differences. It was amazing how it had changed. There were more industries than 7 years ago. There were more stores, bus-stands, and buildings.

There was one thing I was glad that didn't change. The people, they stayed loving and affectionate as they always were. In Orissa, I feel that the love isn't a bowl of sugar that gets used up. The love goes on for centuries, which will stay deep down in the hearts forever. Orissa is a place to stay or visit.

* Awarded 3rd prize under 12 yrs.**

O R I S S A

Srijay Mahapatra

I, last visited India with my parents in December of nineteen hundred and eighty-two. We spent 1½ weeks in Germany, 3 days in New Delhi, Delhi and Agra and 4 weeks in Orissa.

I could see differences between New Delhi and Orissa. Orissa looked old while New Delhi was quite modern. Orissa has old temples and very old beautiful beaches. It has old people and very old culture. People pray on the street and festivals are held on the street and are announced. Songs are sung, pictures are painted in front of temples.

Riding on the streets of Orissa you see old trucks, old huts, poor roads and poor people, I felt sorry for the people so I gave them money.

What I Know of Orissa*
Nivedita Misra

Orissa is located on the east coast of India. Its neighbors are West Bengal, Bihar, Madhya Pradesh and Andhra Pradesh. The Bay of Bengal washes its shores to the east. In January the temperature is between 60 to 70° Fahrenheit. In July the temperature is between 80 to 90° Fahrenheit. The annual rainfall in Orissa is anywhere from forty to eighty inches.

Orissa are known for their independence and craftsmanship. Orissa remained unconquered for many centuries. The land of Orissa is dotted with many fine temples which are magnificent works of architecture. Bhubaneswar, the capital of Orissa, alone has almost five hundred temples. They say there used to be seven thousand temples in that city before the Muslims destroyed them. Puri, forty miles south of Bhubaneswar, is one of the holiest places in all of India.

Agriculture is one of the major occupations. Orissa grows enough food to provide for itself and to provide some surplus to the neighboring states. Technology hasn't yet taken a big part in farming. Western Orissa is very rich in minerals. In recent times more mines are being excavated and many new industries are being established.

The biggest festival is Rathjatra which is held in summer at Puri. In this festival Lord Jagannath is taken out of the temple for general public view. For months before the festival the wooden carts with their sixteen wheels are beautifully decorated. On the day of the festival thousands of people gather at Puri, and they all want to help in pulling the carts. The other important festival is Durga pooja also known as Dassera which is held in October. People worship the Goddess Durga for good luck and prosperity. They also wear new clothes.

Orissa is also known for its cultural tradition. Orissi dance began as a dance performed in the temples before the deities. It has now developed to be one of the loveliest classical dance forms. Orissi music is semi-classical in nature and is very pleasant to hear.

There are a lot of poor people in Orissa. We have to work hard to improve the economic conditions of the Oriya people.

* Awarded as the best essay.

O R I S S A

Ashima Barik (Julie)

Orissa is a small state. The location is on the east side. The state is famous for their Hindu Religion. The state is full of mountains, rivers, lake etc. Bhubaneswar is the capital of Orissa. Gopabandhu was from Orissa. Orissa is the only state where they eat pakhalas. Ravenshaw College is one of the best Colleges in Orissa. Gadamadhapur is a village on Orissa. Konark is one of the most famous Sun Temple located at Puri. Konark has beautiful art all over. Foreign tourist enjoys each part of the Konark. I am proud to be a part of Orissa !

O R I S S A

Devjani Mishra

Orissa is a state in Eastern India. Although it is not well-known, it is overflowing with beauty. A fine example of this is the Sun Temple at Konark. Dedicated to Surya, it is in the form of the chariot that pulls him across the sky. The temple itself was made by human hands and took twelve years to build. This is not surprising, since the building is adorned with scores of intricately carved statues, many of them dancers.

Another example is Nandan Kanan. A zoo in the district of Cuttack, it does more than housing animals. There is a beautiful garden with colorful flowers, a lake to go boating in, and a playground for little children. The workers at the zoo are very friendly.

But there is another side to Orissa. It is beneath all the beauty. It is the side of the people, the people who are not as fortunate as us. They live in cramped dwellings with disease and hunger. They search for food in gutters and streets. They beg strangers for money. They know no comfort. They have no benefits. All they have is hope.

To sum it up, I would say that Orissa is nice, but not perfect, and bad, but not terrible; and that makes a good place to live.

WHAT I KNOW ABOUT ORISSA ?

Smeeta Mahanti

Orissa is a state in India. It's divided into 13 districts. The capital is Bhubaneswar where my grandparents live. The biggest city is Cuttack. It is very crowded. On the street you can see cows, cars, shops, bikes, buses, rickshaw and of course people and there are no traffic lights !

I went to my mother's village. I saw mango trees, jackfruit trees and monkeys jumping one place to another. In the village the houses are made out of straws and mud. Even though the people are poor, they are nice and happy. There are many temples in Orissa. The famous temples are: Konark's Sun Temple, Puri's Jaganath temple and Bhubaneswar's Lingaraj Temple which is the tallest in Orissa.

Nandan Kanan is a famous amusement park in Orissa. The market is very crowded, even if there are many people it's still fun. It is fun to see people roaming around.

The people from Orissa talk Oriya. The famous dance is called the Odissi dance. I loved spending my time with relatives and going to the temples and the market at Sambalpur. (where my grandparents live)

It is very exciting to go to O R I S S A !

(But the sad part is when you have to leave)

WHAT OSA MEANS TO ME

Lalat Patnaik (Pupun)

Well, to me, OSA is an outstanding organization which includes all the Oriyas of the United States. Every once a year, we all meet to emphasize, re-emphasize and discuss the cultural growth and progress of the young Oriyas here. The OSA meetings also encourage everyone to speak or learn the ORIYA language and if possible know it by heart. No matter what age group were in, (young, teenager or old) we should always be proud of our origin. For example; love for our family, respect for our elders, caring for the ones we love, or sacrifice for the children are some of our best qualities; and that is what OSA brings to our attention. They do this through varieties of cultural events and programs. Almost everyone enjoys these while the younger ones learn from them. All in all, it brings closeness and gives us strength in a foreign country.

O.S.A.

Manash Sahoo

O.S.A. stands for Orissa Society of America, which is generally an Indian based society. O.S.A. is a society where one may show his/her talents and skills of Indian heritage. O.S.A. retains the Indian culture, enjoyment of certain festivities, and seriousness of a society, thus, providing pleasure to be a member or part of the O.S.A. For example, Indian culture is almost always shown in the form of dancing, drama, religious ceremonies, etc. Also, it is a society where one can learn the basic Indian ways. Even though, the above describes O.S.A. in general terms, there may be and could be other factors that make one believe that O.S.A. is what he or she may want it to be. For example, O.S.A., to some people, does not only stand for Orissa Society of America, for it is an ambiguous statement. To the observer, it may also stand for other numerous reasons that make O.S.A. the way one may see it. It is a society where one can be and feel comfortable with its surroundings. Also, it may be a society where one can meet new people and associate his/her thoughts with others. Some may feel that it is a society where one can feel wanted, accepted, and loved by inspiring, well cultured, sophisticated people. Even though these might be motives for being a part of the O.S.A., the main reason is to feel like, to love like, and to be like a true O.S.A. member.

LORD JAGAUNATH

Ajit Mahapatra

Lord Jagaunath temple is the most famous temple in Orissa. In that temple there is a huge statue of Lord Jagaunath. There are twenty steps to get to Lord Jagaunath. Those steps are very long! In the temple Lord Jagaunath stands next to his brother Balabhadra and his sister Sumitra. Every year people from all over India come to celebrate the car festival. There is a place called " Muktimandap" people say that they forget all their pain when they stand at the Mandap.

In the carfestival there are three carts . In the first cart Lord Jagaunath sits. In the second cart Balabhadra sits. In the last cart Sumitra sits. The carts have to be pulled by people, and the ropes are very wide. People try touching the ropes because they believe that they will go to heaven.

People believe that if you are blind by touching Lord Jagaunath feet you will get back your eyesight.

Today Orissa is a cultural renaissance. It is very rich in her literature and fine arts. Orissa has a population of more than 20 million, and its capital is Bhubaneswar which was built after Orissa's independence. Bhubaneswar otherwise known as the city of temples and tanks, boasts of a cluster of some five hundred temples still standing since ancient times.

Odissi is the unique classical dance of Orissa. It is a highly civilized dance that existed over 2000 years ago and is now being loved around the world for its elaborate grace and charm. Orissa also possesses a variety of colorful folk dances.

Orissian monuments are simply priceless architectural wonders. To take a few examples there stands at Dhauili, Sajottamah, a magnificent figure of an elephant. The finest among orissian monuments is the Sun Temple of Konark. It is the breath taking sight, and we should all be proud of our cultural heritage.

The next best thing to visiting India is India visiting you.

This June, in Washington, D.C., the Festival of India opens officially in the United States with Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi and Mrs. Nancy Reagan as honorary chairpeople.

The Festival brings, for the first time, the entire galaxy of Indian achievement to major cultural institutions across the United States. Over the next two years there will be more than 200 events in over 100 American cities. The events will include exhibits of Indian art, music, dance, drama, film, crafts—even technology.

It's an enormous happening and enormously exciting.

We're very proud of our part in it.

We hope, after you attend the Festival, you'll want to do the best thing and visit India.

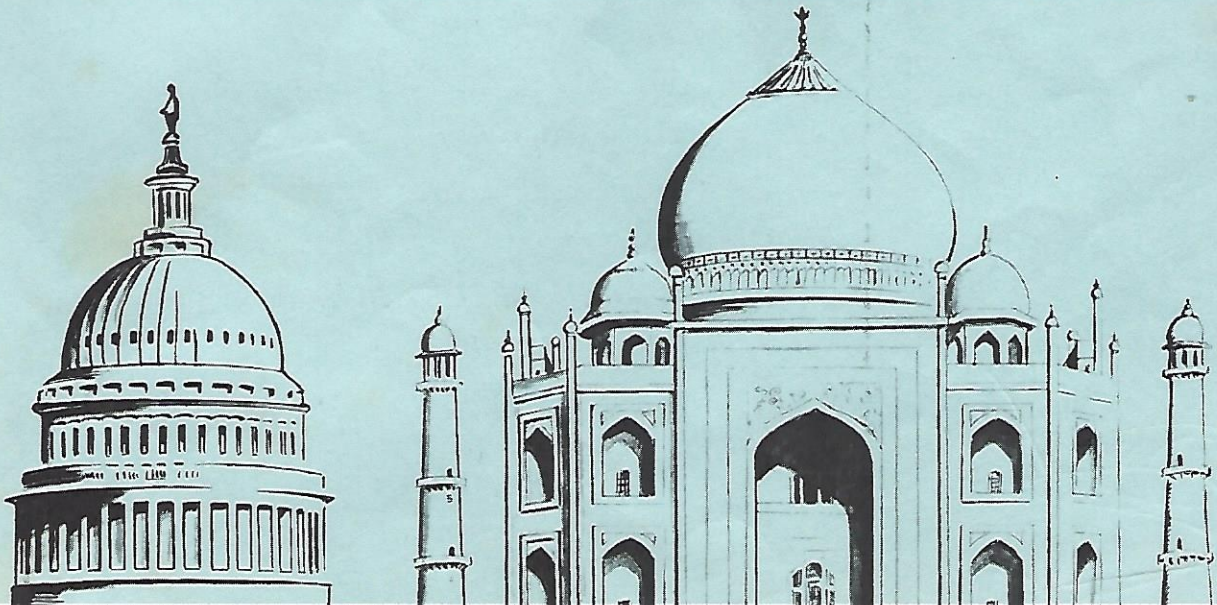

We also hope you'll travel there on India's airline, Air-India.
